November Update--Fall Break Edition

Wishing you all a restful Fall Break. When we return to school we will have only 17 school days and 2 days of Final Exams left in the 1st semester…THAT'S IT! Time to review where you are for the semester, set some goals to achieve what you set out to achieve this term and put in the work.

Remember: You apply to college with your cumulative junior year GPA--think about that! What changes do you need to make now to be sure you are happy with the gpa you are applying to college with? Here are a few tools that you may find helpful in the coming weeks:
